

WOR(l)D Policies and Procedures

SECTION 1 - Introduction

Policies and Compensation Plan Incorporated into Affiliate Agreement

These Policies and Procedures, in their present form and as amended at the sole discretion of World Global Network India Pvt. Ltd. (hereafter "WOR(l)D" or the "Company"), are incorporated into, and form an integral part of, the WOR(l)D Affiliate Agreement. Throughout these Policies and Procedures, when the term "Agreement" is used, it collectively refers to the WOR(l)D Affiliate Application and Agreement, these Policies and Procedures, the WOR(l)D Compensation Plan, WOR(l)D Terms of Service, and WOR(l)D Terms and Conditions and any other document established by the Company. These documents are incorporated by reference into the WOR(l)D Affiliate Agreement (all in their current form and as amended by WOR(l)D. It is the responsibility of each Affiliate to read, understand, adhere to, and ensure that he or she is aware of and operating under the most current version of these Policies and Procedures. When sponsoring or enrolling a new Affiliate, it is the responsibility of the sponsoring Affiliate to ensure that the applicant is provided with, or has online access to, the most current version of these Policies and Procedures, the WOR(l)D Compensation Plan, WOR(l)D Terms of Service, and WOR(l)D Terms and Conditions prior to his or her execution of the Affiliate Agreement.

- Purpose of Policies

WOR(l)D is a direct sales company that markets its Products through Independent Affiliates. It is important to understand that your success and the success of your fellow Affiliates depends on the integrity of the men and women who market our Products and Services. To clearly define the relationship that exists between Affiliates and wor(l)d, and to explicitly set a standard for acceptable business conduct, WOR(l)D has established the Agreement and can establish documents contained the basic rules conduct. WOR(l)D Affiliates are required to comply with all of the Terms and Conditions set forth in the Agreement which WOR(l)D may amend at its sole discretion from time to time, as well as all international, federal, state, and local laws governing their WOR(l)D business and their conduct. Because you may be unfamiliar with many of these standards of practice, it is very important that you read and abide by the Agreement and the documents contained the basic rules conduct. Please review the information in this manual carefully. It explains and governs the relationship between you, as an Affiliate and the Company. If you have any questions regarding any policy or rule, do not hesitate to seek an answer from anyone in your upline or wor(l)d.

- Changes to the Agreement

Because international, federal, state, and local laws, as well as the business environment, periodically change, WOR(l)D reserves the right to amend the Agreement and its prices in its sole and absolute discretion. By accepting the terms of the Affiliate Agreement, an affiliate agrees to abide by all amendments or modifications that WOR(l)D elects to make. Amendments shall be effective from the publication without upon notice to affiliates that the Agreement has been modified. Notification of amendments shall be published in official WOR(l)D materials, or other ways that the Company deems appropriate. The Company shall provide or make available to all affiliates a complete copy of the amended provisions by one or more of the following methods: (1)

posting on the Company's official web site;

(2) electronic mail (e-mail) (3) inclusion in Company periodicals; (4) inclusion in Product orders or Bonus payments; or (5) special mailings. The continuation, also without any communication kind, of an Affiliate's WOR(l)D business or an Affiliate's acceptance of Bonuses or Commissions constitutes acceptance of any and all amendments.

- Delays

WOR(l)D shall not be responsible for delays or failures in performance of its obligations when performance is made commercially impracticable due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control. This includes, without limitation, strikes, labor difficulties, riot, war, fire, death, reasons of force majeure curtailment of a party's source of supply, or government decrees or orders.

- Policies and Provisions Severable

If any provision of the Agreement, in its current form or as may be amended, is found to be invalid, or unenforceable for any reason, only the invalid portion(s) of the provision shall be severed and the remaining terms and provisions shall remain in full force and effect and shall be construed as if such invalid, or unenforceable provision never comprised a part of the Agreement.

- Waiver

The Company never gives up its right to insist on compliance with the Agreement and with the applicable laws governing the conduct of a business. No failure of WOR(l)D to exercise any right or power under the Agreement or to insist upon strict compliance by an Affiliate with any obligation or provision of the Agreement, and no custom or practice of the parties at variance with the terms of the Agreement, shall constitute a waiver of wor(l)d's right to demand exact compliance with the Agreement. Waiver by WOR(l)D can be effectuated only in writing by an authorized officer of the Company. wor(l)d's waiver of any particular breach by an Affiliate shall not affect or impair wor(l)d's rights with respect to any subsequent breach, nor shall it affect in any way the rights or obligations of any other Affiliate. Nor shall any delay or omission by WOR(l)D to exercise any right arising from a breach affect or impair WOR(l)D's rights as to that or any subsequent breach. The existence of any claim or cause of action of an Affiliate against WOR(l)D shall not constitute a defense to WOR(l)D's enforcement of any term or provision of the Agreement.

- Adherence to the WOR(l)D Compensation Plan

Affiliates must adhere to the terms of the WOR(l)D Compensation Plan as set forth in official WOR(l)D literature.

- Advertising

- General

All Affiliates shall safeguard and promote the good reputation of WOR(l)D and its products and services. The marketing and promotion of wor(l)d, the WOR(l)DOpportunity, the Compensation Plan, and WOR(l)D products and services shall be consistent with the public interest, and must avoid all discourteous, deceptive, misleading, unethical or immoral conduct or practices.

- Trademarks and Copyrights

WOR(l)D will not allow the use of its trade names, trademarks, designs, or symbols by any person, including WOR(l)D Affiliates, without its prior, concrete and explicit written permission. Affiliates may not produce for sale or distribution any recorded Company events and speeches without prior written explicit permission from WOR(l)D nor may Affiliates reproduce for sale or for personal use any recording of Company produced audio or video tape presentations.

The Affiliate will not use the material which he has as affiliate neither he will not use the information that has acquired with him activities, for the purpose of committing direct or indirect acts or omissions, that its may adversely affect the Company

- Media and Media Inquiries

Affiliates must not attempt to respond to media inquiries regarding wor(l)d, its Products or Services, or their independent WOR(l)D business. All inquiries by any type of media must be immediately referred to wor(l)d's Marketing Department. This policy is designed to assure that accurate and consistent information is provided to the public as well as a proper public image.

- Unsolicited Email

WOR(l)D does not permit affiliates to send unsolicited commercial emails unless such emails strictly comply with applicable laws and regulations including, without limitation, the federal CAN SPAM Act and Global and International regulations. The costumer agrees to be bound by this legislation.

Any email sent by an Affiliate that promotes wor(l)d, the WOR(l)D Opportunity, or WOR(l)D products and services must comply with the following:

There must be a functioning return email address to the sender;

There must be a notice in the email that advises the recipient that he or she may reply to the email, via the functioning return email address, to request that future email solicitations or correspondence not be sent to him or her (a functioning "opt-out" notice);

The email must clearly and conspicuously disclose that the message is an advertisement or solicitation;

The use of deceptive subject lines and/or false header information is prohibited;

All opt-out requests, whether received by email or regular mail, must be honored. If an Affiliate receives an opt-out request from a recipient of an email, the Affiliate must forward the opt-out request to the Company.

- Unsolicited Faxes and e-mail

Except as provided in this section, Affiliates may not use or transmit unsolicited faxes or use an automatic telephone dialing system relative to the operation of their WOR(l)D businesses. The term "automatic telephone dialing system" means equipment which has the capacity to: (a) store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a random or sequential number generator; and (b) to dial such numbers. The terms "unsolicited faxes and e-mail" means the transmission via telephone facsimile or electronic mail, respectively, of any material or information advertising or promoting wor(l)d, its Products, its Compensation Plan or any other aspect of the company which is transmitted to any person, except that these terms do not include a fax or e-mail: (a) to any person with that person's prior express invitation or permission; or (b) to any person with whom the Affiliate has an established business or personal relationship. The term "established business or personal relationship" means a prior or existing relationship formed by a voluntary two way communication between an Affiliate and a person, on the basis of: (a) an inquiry, application, purchase or transaction by the person regarding Products offered by such Affiliate; or (b) a personal or familial relationship, which relationship has not been previously terminated by either party.

- Bonus Buying Prohibited

Bonus buying is strictly and absolutely prohibited. "Bonus buying" includes: (a) the enrollment of individuals or entities without the knowledge of and/or execution of an Independent Affiliate Application and Agreement by such individuals or entities; (b) the fraudulent enrollment of an individual or entity as an Affiliate or Customer; (c) the enrollment or attempted enrollment of non-existent individuals or entities as Affiliates or Customers ("phantoms"); (d) Purchasing WOR(l)D services on behalf of another Affiliate or Customer, or under another Affiliate's or Customer's I.D. number, to qualify for Commissions or Bonuses; (e) purchasing excessive amounts of services that cannot reasonably be used (f) any other mechanism or artifice to qualify for rank advancement, incentives, prizes, Commissions or Bonuses that is not driven by bona fide Product or Service purchases by end-user consumers.

- Change of Sponsor

An Affiliate may legitimately change organizations only by voluntarily canceling his or her WOR(l)D business and remaining inactive (i.e., no purchases of WOR(l)D Products for resale, no sales of WOR(l)D Products, no sponsoring, no attendance at any WOR(l)D functions, participation in any other form of Affiliate activity, or operation of any other WOR(l)D business) for six (6) full calendar months. Following the six month period of inactivity, the former Affiliate may reapply under a new Sponsor.

- Unauthorized Claims and Actions

- Indemnification

An Affiliate is fully and exclusively responsible for all of his or her verbal and written statements made regarding WOR(l)D Products, Services, and the Compensation Plan which are not expressly contained in official WOR(l)D materials. Affiliates agree to indemnify WOR(l)D and WOR(l)D's directors, officers, employees, and agents, and hold them harmless from any and all liability including judgments, civil penalties, refunds, attorney fees, court costs, or lost business incurred by WOR(l)D as a result of the Affiliate's unauthorized representations or actions. This provision shall survive the termination of the Affiliate Agreement.

- Income Claims

In their enthusiasm to enroll prospective Affiliates, some Affiliates are occasionally tempted to make income claims or earnings representations to demonstrate the inherent power of network marketing. This is counterproductive because new Affiliates may become disappointed very quickly if their results are not as extensive or as rapid as the results others have achieved. At wor(l)d, we firmly believe that the WOR(l)D income potential is great enough to be highly attractive, without reporting the earnings of others.

Moreover, the Federal Trade Commission, several countries and states and other International Authorities have laws or regulations that regulate or even prohibit certain types of income claims and testimonials made by persons engaged in network marketing. While Affiliates may believe it beneficial to disclose the earnings of themselves or others, such approaches have legal consequences that can negatively impact WOR(l)D as well as the Affiliate making the claim unless appropriate disclosures required by law are also made contemporaneously with the income claim or earnings representation. Because WOR(l)D Affiliates do not have the data necessary to comply with the legal requirements for making income claims, an Affiliate, when presenting or discussing the WOR(l)D Opportunity or Compensation Plan to a prospective Affiliate, may not make income projections, income claims, or disclose his or her WOR(l)D income (including the showing of bank statements, or tax records).

Any action contrary to everything that is specified in this paragraph shall be the sole responsibility of the Affiliate.

- Trade Shows, Expositions and Other Sales Forums

Affiliates may display and/or sell WOR(l)D Products or Services at trade shows and professional expositions. Before submitting a deposit to the event promoter, Affiliates must contact the Affiliate Services department in writing for conditional approval, as wor(l)d's policy is to authorize only one WOR(l)D business per event. Final approval will be granted to the first Affiliate who submits an official advertisement of the event, a copy of the contract signed by both the Affiliate and the event official, and a receipt indicating that a deposit for the booth has been paid. Approval is given only for the event specified. Any requests to participate in future events must again be submitted to the Marketing Department. WOR(l)D further, at its sole discretion, reserves the right to refuse authorization to participate at any function that it does not deem a suitable forum for the promotion of its Products, Services, or the WOR(l)D Opportunity. Approval will not be given for swap meets, garage sales, flea markets or farmer's markets as these events are not conducive to the professional image WOR(l)D wishes to portray.

- Conflicts of Interest

- Non solicitation

WOR(l)D Affiliates are free to participate in other multilevel or network marketing business ventures or marketing opportunities (collectively "network marketing"), until their participation in other multilevel does not involve conflicts of interest with the development of the proper business in WOR(l)D and if such participation does not bear damages, of any kind, to the Company.

In any case, without exception, users registered as frontlines of the Company or those users who have the rank of President Gold or superior, cannot absolutely participate to other direct selling business. However, during the term of this Agreement, affiliates cannot directly or indirectly recruit other WOR(l)D Affiliates or Customers for any other network marketing business.

If an affiliate uses one of the prohibited acts described in the previous paragraphs, the Company, in its sole discretion and without prior notice, reserves the immediate cancellation of the position.

Furthermore, if the Independent Agreement of an Affiliate has been cancelled, the Affiliate will not be able to participate in the WOR(l)D, he can only secure a new position 6 months after the cancellation of the existing position. An former Affiliate, is not allowed to recruit WOR(l)D Affiliate. During the duration of the Independent Affiliate Agreement, the Affiliate position can be cancelled without prior notice and at the sole discretion of the Company, if this will be recruited, even by a former Affiliate to attend another mlm.

Affiliates and the Company recognize that because network marketing is conducted through networks of independent contractors dispersed internationally, and business is commonly conducted via the internet and telephone, an effort to narrowly limit the geographic scope of this non-solicitation provision would render it wholly ineffective. Therefore, affiliates and WOR(l)D agree that this non- solicitation provision shall apply to all markets in which WOR(l)D conducts business.

- Sale and Promote of Competing Goods or Services

Affiliates must not sell, or attempt to sell, any competing non-WOR(l)D programs, Products or Services to WOR(l)D Customers or Affiliates. Any program, Product or Service in the same generic categories as WOR(l)D Products or Services is deemed to be competing, regardless of differences in cost, quality or other distinguishing factors.

- Affiliate Participation in Other Direct Selling Programs

If an Affiliate is engaged in other non-WOR(l)D direct selling programs, it is the responsibility of the affiliate to ensure that his or her WOR(l)D business is operated entirely separate and apart from any other program. To this end, the following must be adhered to:

Affiliates shall not display WOR(l)D promotional material, sales aids, Products or Services with or in the same location as, any non-WOR(l)D promotional material or sales aids, Products or Services. Affiliates shall not offer the WOR(l)D Opportunity, Products or Services to prospective or existing Customers or Affiliates in conjunction with any non-WOR(l)D program, Opportunity, Product or Service.

Affiliates may not offer any non-WOR(l)D opportunity, Products, Services or Opportunity at any wor(l)d-related meeting, seminar or convention, or within two hours and a five mile radius of the WOR(l)D event. If the WOR(l)D meeting is held telephonically or on the internet, any non-WOR(l)D meeting must be at least two hours before or after the WOR(l)D meeting, and on a different conference telephone number or internet web address from the WOR(l)D meeting.

- Downline Activity (Genealogy) Reports

Downline Activity Reports are available for Affiliate access in their official Back Office. Affiliate access to their Downline Activity Reports is password protected. All Downline Activity Reports and the information contained therein are confidential and constitute proprietary information and business trade secrets belonging to WOR(l)D. Downline Activity Reports are provided to Affiliates in strictest confidence and are made available to Affiliates for the sole purpose of assisting Affiliates in working with their respective Downline Organizations in the development of their WOR(l)D business. Affiliates should use their Downline Activity Reports to assist, motivate, and train their downline Affiliates. The Affiliate and WOR(l)D agree that, but for this agreement of confidentiality and nondisclosure, WOR(l)D would not provide Downline Activity Reports to the Affiliate. An Affiliate shall not, on his or her own behalf, or on behalf of any other person, partnership, association, corporation or other entity:

Directly or indirectly disclose any information contained in any Downline Activity Report to any third party;

Directly or indirectly disclose the password or other access code to his or her Downline Activity Report;

Use the information to compete with WOR(l)D or for any purpose other than promoting his or her WOR(l)Dbusiness;

Recruit or solicit any Affiliate or Customer of WOR(l)D listed on any report, or in any manner attempt to influence or induce any Affiliate or Preferred Customer of wor(l)d, to alter their business relationship with WOR(l)D, or

Use or disclose to any person, partnership, association, corporation, or other entity any information contained in any Downline Activity Report

Upon demand by the Company, any current or former Affiliate will return the original and all copies of Downline Activity Reports to the Company. WOR(l)D reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to pursue in the ways and times to be fixed each time according to the circumstances of the actual situation found, the violations described before.

- Targeting Other Direct Sellers

WOR(l)D does not condone Affiliates specifically or consciously targeting the sales force of another direct sales company to sell WOR(l)D Products or to become Affiliates for wor(l)d, nor does WOR(l)D condone Affiliates solicitation or enticement of members of the sales force of another direct sales company to violate the terms of their contract with such other company. Should Affiliates engage in such activity, they bear the risk of being sued by the other direct sales company.

If any lawsuit, arbitration or mediation is brought against an Affiliate alleging that he or she engaged in inappropriate recruiting activity of its sales force or customers, WOR(l)D will not pay any of Affiliate's defence costs or legal fees, nor will WOR(l)D indemnify the Affiliate for any judgment, award, or settlement.

- Cross-Sponsoring

Actual or attempted cross sponsoring is strictly prohibited. "Cross sponsoring" is defined as the enrolment of an individual who or entity that already has a current Customer or Affiliate Agreement on file with wor(l)d, or who has had such an agreement within the preceding six calendar months, within a different line of sponsorship. The use of a spouse's or relative's name, trade names, DBAs, assumed names, corporations, partnerships, trusts, federal ID numbers, or fictitious ID numbers to circumvent this policy is prohibited. Affiliates shall not demean, discredit or defame other WOR(l)D Affiliates in an attempt to entice another Affiliate to become part of the other Affiliate's marketing organization. This policy shall not prohibit the transfer of a WOR(l)D business in accordance with Section 3.4.

If Cross Sponsoring is discovered, it must be brought to the Company's attention immediately. WOR(l)D may take disciplinary action against the Affiliate that changed organizations and/or those Affiliates who encouraged or participated in the Cross Sponsoring. WOR(l)D may also move all or part of the offending Affiliate's downline to his or her original downline organization if the Company deems it equitable and feasible to do so. However, WOR(l)D is under no obligation to move the Cross Sponsored Affiliate's downline organization, and the ultimate disposition of the organization remains within the sole discretion of wor(l)d.

Affiliates waive all claims and causes of action against WOR(l)D arising from or relating to the disposition of the Cross Sponsored Affiliate's downline organization.

- Errors or Questions

If an Affiliate has questions about or believes any errors have been made regarding Commissions, Bonuses, Downline Activity Reports, or charges, the Affiliate must notify WOR(l)D in writing within 60 days of the date of the purported error or incident in question. The Affiliate can not claim anything to wor(l)d, beyond the limits in this documents have been established.

WOR(l)D will not be responsible for any errors, omissions or problems not reported to the Company within 60 days.

Affiliates should demonstrate that He had sent on time the communications of alleged error or accident.

Once WOR(l)D receives the notice of the alleged error or accident, the Company will make, on necessary time, the appropriate checks and the Company will give communication about the result of them to Affiliate timely. Not be taken into account communications about errors or accidents that are received by the Company on behalf of third parties.

- Governmental Approval or Endorsement

Neither international, federal nor state regulatory agencies or officials approve or endorse any direct selling or network marketing companies or programs. Therefore, Affiliates shall not represent or imply that WOR(l)D or its Compensation Plan have been "approved," "endorsed" or otherwise sanctioned by any government agency.

- Identification

All Affiliates are required to provide a Government's ID Number to WOR(l)D on the affiliate application, in their enrolment and Agreement. Upon enrolment, WOR(l)D will provide a unique Affiliate Nickname to the Affiliate by which he or she will be identified. This nickname will be used to place orders, and track Commissions and Bonuses.

Also addition, the Affiliate is required to submit, in a manner determined by the Company, a valid passport or identity document, an invoice and any other document that WOR(l)D will require each time to him or her.

The affiliate agrees and acknowledges that no credit will be paid by the company to him if the documents requested above have not been facilitated by the affiliate as requested by the Company.

- Income Taxes

Each Affiliate is responsible for paying local, state, and federal taxes on any income generated as an Independent Affiliate. If a WOR(l)D business is tax exempt, the Federal tax identification number must be provided to wor(l)d.

- Affiliate Status

Affiliates are Independent Contractors, and are not purchasers of a business opportunity. The agreement between WOR(l)D and its affiliates does not create an employer/employee relationship, agency, partnership, or joint venture between the Company and the affiliate. Affiliates shall not be treated as an employee for his or her services or for Federal or State tax purposes. All Affiliates are responsible for paying local, state, and federal taxes due from all compensation earned as an Affiliate of the Company. The Affiliate has no authority (expressed or implied), to bind the Company to any obligation. Each Affiliate shall establish his or her own goals, hours, and methods of sale, so long as he or she complies with the terms of the Affiliate Agreement, these Policies and Procedures, and applicable laws.

The name of WOR(l)D and other names as may be adopted by WOR(l)D are proprietary trade names, trademarks and service marks of wor(l)d, protected by applicable law.

As such, these marks are of great value to WOR(l)D and are supplied to Affiliates for their use only in an expressly authorized manner. Use of WOR(l)D name on any item not produced by the Company is prohibited except as follows:

Affiliate's Name Independent WOR(l)D Affiliate

All Affiliates may list themselves as an "Independent WOR(l)D Affiliate" in the white or yellow pages of the telephone directory under their own name. No Affiliate may place telephone directory display ads using wor(l)d's name or logo. Affiliates may not answer the telephone by saying "wor(l)d", "WOR(l)D Incorporated", or in any other manner that would lead the caller to believe that he or she has reached corporate offices of wor(l)d, not even signing emails with "wor(l)d" or "WOR(l)D Incorporated".

- Insurance

You may wish to arrange insurance coverage for your business. Your homeowner's insurance policy does not cover business-related injuries, or the theft of or damage to inventory or business equipment. Contact your insurance agent to make certain that your business property is protected. This can often be accomplished with a simple "Business Pursuit" endorsement attached to your present home owner's policy.

- Adherence to Laws and Ordinances

Affiliates shall comply with all international, federal, state, and local laws and regulations in the conduct of their businesses. Many cities, counties and countries have laws regulating certain home-based businesses. In most cases these ordinances are not applicable to Affiliates because of the nature of their business. However, Affiliates must obey those laws that do apply to them.

Affiliate agrees that the responsibility for the completely respect of these laws and rules it is sole and exclusive of him.

If a city or county official tells an Affiliate that an ordinance applies to him or her, the Affiliate shall be polite and cooperative, and immediately send a copy of the ordinance to the Compliance Department of wor(l)d. In most cases there are exceptions to the ordinance that may apply to WOR(l)D Affiliates.

Because of critical legal and tax considerations, WOR(l)D must limit the sale of its Products and the presentation of our business Opportunity to prospective customers and Affiliates within jurisdictions where such activities may be lawfully undertaken. Accordingly you may not sell or market the WOR(l)D Product or promote the business Opportunity in countries or territories that have not been officially opened by wor(l)d. You may contact legal@worldgmn.com if you have questions about which countries you may sell in.

- Minors

A person who is recognized as a minor in his/her country of residence may not be a WOR(l)D Affiliate. Affiliates shall not enroll or recruit minors into the WOR(l)D program.

- Actions of Household Members or Affiliated Individuals

If any member of an Affiliate's immediate household engages in any activity which, if performed by the Affiliate, would violate any provision of the Agreement, such activity will be deemed a violation by the Affiliate and wor(l)d, at its sole discretion, may take any kind of action pursuant to the Statement of Policies and Procedures against the Affiliate. Similarly, if any individual Affiliated in any way with a corporation, partnership, trust or other entity (collectively "affiliated individual") violates the Agreement, such action(s) will be deemed a violation by the entity, and WOR(l)D may take disciplinary action against the entity.

- Sale, Transfer or Assignment of WOR(l)D Business

Although a WOR(l)D business is a privately owned, independently operated business, the sale, transfer or assignment of a WOR(l)D business is subject to certain limitations. If an Affiliate wishes to sell his or her WOR(l)D business, the following criteria must be met:

Protection of the existing line of sponsorship must always be maintained so that the WOR(l)D business continues to be operated in that line of sponsorship.

The buyer or transferee must become a qualified WOR(l)D Affiliate. If the buyer is an active WOR(l)D Affiliate, he or she must first terminate his or her WOR(l)D business and wait six calendar months before acquiring any interest in the new WOR(l)D business.

Before the sale, transfer or assignment can be finalized and approved by wor(l)d, any debt obligations the selling Affiliate has with WOR(l)D must be satisfied.

The selling Affiliate must be in good standing and not in violation of any of the terms of the Agreement in order to be eligible to sell, transfer or assign a WOR(l)D business;

Affiliate must return any material used during the term of this agreement;

Affiliate agrees not to take action, direct or indirect, which may harm the good image and good name of the company.

Prior to selling a WOR(l)D business, the selling Affiliate must notify wor(l)d's Marketing Department of his or her intent to sell the WOR(l)D business. No changes in line of sponsorship can result from the sale or transfer of a WOR(l)D business. An Affiliate may not sell, transfer or assign individual business centers; if a business is sold, transferred or assigned, all business centers must be included in the transaction.

- Separation of a WOR(l)D Business

WOR(l)D Affiliates sometimes operate their WOR(l)D businesses as husband-wife partnerships, regular partnerships, corporations, or trusts. At such time as a marriage may end in divorce or a corporation, partnership or trust (the latter three entities are collectively referred to herein as "entities") may dissolve, arrangements must be made to assure that any separation or division of the business is accomplished so as not to adversely affect the interests and income of other businesses up or down the line of sponsorship. If the separating parties fail to provide for the best interests of other Affiliates and the Company in a timely fashion, WOR(l)D will involuntarily terminate the Affiliate Agreement. WOR(l)D recognizes the possibility that two people, for example, husband and wife can share the same position. In this case, the Affiliate acknowledges that any privilege (serve as an example, but not only limited to what is specified here, promotions, bonuses, etc..) or rights, will be recognized and attributed to only one of them.

In this sense, is the sole responsibility of the two people who share the same position, organize and share the responsibilities, rights and privileges that arise from their work.

Both persons are compromised to not expect and not claim anything to WOR(l)D in any case.

During the divorce or entity dissolution process, the parties must adopt one of the following methods of operation:

One of the parties may, with consent of the other(s), operate the WOR(l)D business pursuant to an assignment in writing whereby the relinquishing spouse, shareholders, partners or trustees authorize WOR(l)D to deal directly and solely with the other spouse or non-relinquishing shareholder, partner or trustee.

The parties may continue to operate the WOR(l)D business jointly on a "business- as-usual" basis, whereupon all compensation paid by WOR(l)D will be paid according to the status quo as it existed prior to the divorce filing or dissolution proceedings.

This is the default procedure if the parties do not agree on the format set forth above.

Under no circumstances will the Downline Organization of divorcing spouses or a dissolving business entity be divided. Similarly, under no circumstances will WOR(l)D split Commissions between divorcing spouses or members of dissolving entities. WOR(l)D will recognize only one Downline Organization and will issue only one Commission per WOR(l)D business per Commission Cycle. Commissions shall always be issued to the same individual or entity. In the event that parties to a divorce or dissolution proceeding are unable to resolve a dispute over the disposition of Commissions and Ownership of the business in a timely fashion as determined by the Company, the Affiliate Agreement shall be involuntarily canceled.

If a former spouse has completely relinquished all rights in the original WOR(l)D business pursuant to a divorce, he or she is thereafter free to enroll under any sponsor of his or her choosing without waiting six calendar months. In the case of business entity dissolutions, the former partner, shareholder, member, or other entity affiliate who retains no interest in the business must wait six calendar months from the date of the final dissolution before re-enrolling as an Affiliate. In either case, however, the former spouse or business affiliate shall have no rights to any Affiliates in their former organization or to any former retail customer. They must develop the new business in the same manner as would any other new Affiliate.

- Sponsoring

All active affiliates in good standing have the right to sponsor and enrol others into Wor(l)d, as indicated in the documents, policies and procedures of the Company. Each prospective Customer or Affiliate has the ultimate right to choose his or her own Sponsor. If two affiliates claim to be the Sponsor of the same new affiliate or customer, the Company shall regard the first application received by the Company as controlling.

The affiliate and customer must not be sponsored by two different sponsors.

- Succession

Upon the death or incapacitation of an Affiliate, his or her business may be passed to his or her heirs. Appropriate legal documentation must be submitted to the Company to ensure the transfer is proper. Accordingly, an Affiliate should consult an attorney to assist him or her in the preparation of a will or other testamentary instrument. Whenever a WOR(l)D business is transferred by a will or other testamentary process, the beneficiary acquires the right to collect all Bonuses and Commissions of the deceased Affiliate's marketing organization provided the following qualifications are met. The successor(s)/nominee must:

Execute an Affiliate Agreement;

Comply with terms and provisions of the Agreement; and Meet all of the qualifications for the deceased Affiliate's status.

Bonus and Commission of a WOR(l)D business transferred pursuant to this section will be paid in a single transaction jointly to the devisees. The devisees must provide WOR(l)D with an "address of record" to which all Bonus and Commissions will be sent;

If the business is bequeathed to joint devisees, they must form a business entity and acquire any required Business Identification number. WOR(l)D will issue all Bonus and Commissions to the business entity.

If after the death of an Affiliate or dissolution of a company, no person, natural or juridical, had applied for a transfer of rights and obligations generated by the died Affiliate or by the dissolved company, these rights and obligations will be handled directly by the Company. The period of six months (6) is peremptory.

- Transfer Upon Death of an Affiliate

To effect a testamentary transfer of a WOR(l)D business, the successor/nominee must provide the following to wor(l)d: (1) an original death certificate; (2) a notarized copy of the will or other instrument establishing the successor/nominee's right to the WOR(l)D business; and (3) a completed and executed Affiliate Agreement, or the successor/nominee must have been noted to the company in the application process and proper matching identification must be provided.

- Transfer Upon Incapacitation of an Affiliate

To effectuate a transfer of a WOR(l)D business because of incapacity, the successor/nominee must provide the following to WOR(l)D: (1) a notarized copy of an appointment as trustee; (2) a notarized copy of the trust document or other documentation establishing the trustee's right to administer the WOR(l)D business; and (3) a completed Affiliate Agreement executed by the trustee.

The required documents must be presented in ways and time that WOR(l)D every time establish.

- Telemarketing Techniques

The Federal Trade Commission, the Federal Communications Commission and any Authority have laws that restrict telemarketing practices. These authorities have "do not call" regulations as part of their telemarketing laws. Although WOR(l)D does not consider Affiliates to be "telemarketers" in the traditional sense of the word, these government regulations broadly define the term "telemarketer" and "telemarketing" so that your inadvertent action of calling someone whose telephone number is listed on the federal "do not call" registry could cause you to violate the law. Moreover, these regulations must not be taken lightly, as they carry significant penalties (up to 11,000.00 USD per violation). Therefore, Affiliates must not engage in telemarketing in the operation of their WOR(l)D businesses. The term "telemarketing" means the placing of one or more telephone calls to an individual or entity to induce the purchase of a WOR(l)D Product or Service, or to recruit them for the WOR(l)D Opportunity. "Cold calls" made to prospective customers or Affiliates that promote either wor(l)d's Products or Services or the WOR(l)D Opportunity constitute telemarketing and are prohibited. However, a telephone call(s) placed to a prospective customer or Affiliate (a "prospect") is permissible under the following situations: If the Affiliate has an established business relationship with the prospect. An "established business relationship" is a relationship between an Affiliate and a prospect based on the prospect's purchase, rental, or lease of goods or services from the Affiliate, or a financial transaction between the prospect and the Affiliate, within the eighteen (18) months immediately preceding the date of a telephone call to induce the prospect's purchase of a Product or Service.

The prospect's personal inquiry or application regarding a Product or Service offered by the Affiliate, within the three (3) months immediately preceding the date of such a call.

If the Affiliate receives written and signed permission from the prospect authorizing the Affiliate to call. The authorization must specify the telephone number(s) which the Affiliate is authorized to call.

You may call family members, personal friends, and acquaintances. An "acquaintance" is someone with whom you have at least a recent first-hand relationship within the preceding three months. Bear in mind, however, that if you make a habit of "card collecting" with everyone you meet and subsequently calling them, the competent authority may consider this a form of telemarketing that is not subject to this exemption. Thus, if you engage in calling "acquaintances," you must make such calls on an occasional basis only and not make this a routine practice.

In addition, Affiliates shall not use automatic telephone dialing systems relative to the operation of their WOR(l)D businesses. The term "automatic telephone dialing system" means equipment which has the capacity to: (a) store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a random or sequential number generator; and (b) to dial such numbers.
